

GIACOMETTI UP CLOSE

Tertiary program

Art schools will be offered special access for organised groups of their students at 9am to the Giacometti exhibition at the Art Gallery of New South Wales. This early start is to allow art students one hour of drawing time in front of the exhibits before the Gallery opens to the public at 10am. After that hour students may remain in the exhibition for the purposes of note-taking and discussion.

For reasons of safety and conservation, students may use only graphite pencils, and paper no larger than A3.

It is expected that art schools will send one or more members of their staff to tutor the group, and to assist in the discussion of works. One member of the Gallery's department of Public Programs will also be on hand throughout the first hour and afterwards if required.

Pre bookings are essential. A special educational group concessionary rate of $4/student is available (full admission $10, individual student concession $7). Payment must be made in one group payment upon arrival at the exhibition, by either credit card or cash. The Gallery is pleased to admit the accompanying lecturer free of charge.

Bookings must be made through the Public Programs Bookings Office:
